CONTRIBUTOR'S GUIDE

Become a Contributor

If you would like to be a part of SSAA Queensland's The Report magazine, we'd love to hear from you.

Approach SSAA Queensland with content ideas and for story approval. Include a sample of your writing to increase your chances of getting published.

Email Co-Managing Editor Jennifer Martens on jmartens@ssaaqld.org.au

If your story idea is accepted:

- Fill out a Statement by Supplier and Copyright forms (at the end of this document; note: most writers tick the second to last box that states they are writing as a hobby).
- Supply banking details for payment to jmartens@ssaaqld.org.au

Articles

When a story idea has been approved, please keep text to a maximum of 1500 words. Any longer text requires permission from the Editor. Don't forget that short, to-the-point stories of 500 to 800 words are often more likely to get published.

As a guide, 600 words with two images usually will fill one page.

Also, we work six weeks in advance (eg, October's issue gets planned mid August).

In your stories, remember:

- A one-shot kill is always the goal. Avoid writing about subsequent shots.
- Ensure you know the firearms laws in your state, e.g., what age a junior can start shooting or owning a firearm, where to hunt, etc.
- Check your work. A good tip is to use the Editor tool in Microsoft Word.

Categories you can write about:

- Ammunition
- Bow hunting
- Camping
- Camp cooking/game recipes
- Competitions/Disciplines
- Conservation
- Environmental issues
- Firearms (handguns, rifle, shotgun, collecting/antiques)
- Hunting
- Optics
- Pest control
- Products
- Things happening at your local club

Need some inspiration?

- New disciplines you've tried.
- Old firearms and equipment you've dug up from a bygone era.
- Funny stories from the field or range.
- Some new techniques you're trying to use in your shooting.
- Things you've noticed in the bush - more/less native wildlife, interesting animal tracks, unique trail cam footage.

The list goes on and on.

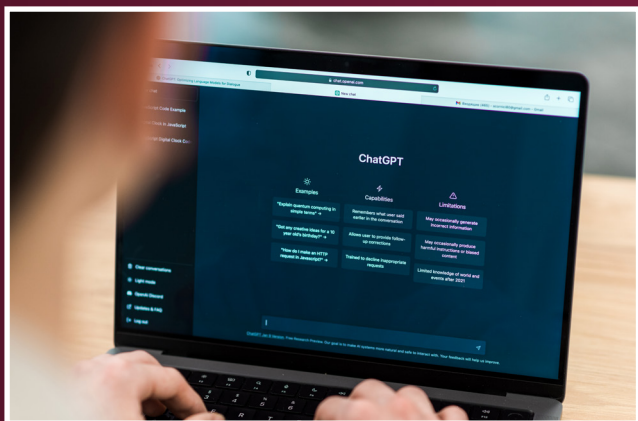

Make sure you run your ideas by:
jmartens@ssaqld.org.au

Writing Style

- Avoid writing in the first person i.e., “I reviewed the rifle and ammunition...” Rather, consider: “The Report was given the opportunity to review...”
- Write cartridges as .22, .223, .30-06 not 30/06.
- When mentioning SSAA, specify SSAA Queensland or SSAA Inc.
- Capitalise Queensland Government and Australian Federal Government but not the generic terms federal or state government.
- Do not overdo capitalisation. Capitalise proper nouns, names, titles, time periods, events, etc. Animals such as sambar deer are not capitalised.
- Consider including ‘breakout’ text. i.e., shorter sections of text that are additional to the main body.

Use of Artificial Intelligence

We discourage the use of AI and Large Language Models such as ChatGPT, Gemini and Claude, etc. We want to hear your voice in your writing as well as your own honest perspectives. Something written uniquely by you is always better than something generic written by AI. It is also very obvious when AI has been used, so please avoid this or ensure a story at least has your tone to it.

Formatting

- You do not need to use fancy formatting in your submissions.
- Please use plain text.
- Use Calibri, Arial or similar and 12-point font size.
- Single space between sentences.
- No space between paragraphs.
- Use italics sparingly.
- Bold headings and sub-headings only.
- Do not include images in Word documents.

Images

Images need to be accompanied with captions – and clearly labelled. Do not paste them in a Word document. Name the images to correspond with the captions in your Word document.

- Photographs with firearms must be taken at a 90-degree angle. Your photo will not be used if it looks to have been taken in front of the firearm or in an unsafe position.
- Do not submit more than 10 photographs.
- Do not submit photos of you sitting on your targeted game.
- Be creative with your images. If you are using a mobile phone for images, consider Googling tips on how to get the best images, taking into consideration lighting, composition, focus, exposure, modes, cropping and filters.

- When photographing people who are shooting/posing with a firearm, ear and eye protection is requested.
- Photographs of people under 18 must have written consent by a parent/carer. (See subsequent Consent form.)
- It is the photographer's responsibility to ensure all subjects are aware that the photograph will be published to the public and have given consent.

Reviews

Any product review needs to be approved by SSAA Queensland prior to acceptance of a product. Reviewers of firearms must have the appropriate licences and must obey all laws and legislations. Review products are the responsibility of the reviewer. Please include where to purchase the reviewed product and the Australian price.

Products for review include:

- Binoculars/Optics
- Firearms and accessories
- Sporting goods
- Camping equipment
- Outdoor gear.

Payments

- Payment will be negotiated according to a writer's experience/quality.
- Images will be paid $30/image.
- Payment will be made when the text is published, not when it is submitted. Payment will be for the first use of a story. Subsequent use, such as on our website, e-newsletter, etc, will not be paid.
- Send banking details to jmartens@ssaaqld.org.au
- The Statement by Supplier and Copyright forms must be signed before payment is made.

SSAA Queensland

Permission for Perpetual Copyright

I _____, hereby grant SSAA Queensland (SSAA (Qld.) Inc.) copyright of any and all articles, photography or artwork that I have supplied to the Association for its media and marketing purposes. Should I wish to publish my contributions myself, I should seek written permission from SSAA Queensland.

I acknowledge my material may be used digitally, i.e. for an enewsletter or website or for a printed publication such as a brochure or magazine. It may be edited and altered without my permission.

Manuscripts, photographs and other forms of contributions that I have initially been paid for may be reused or repurposed without additional payment. Initial payment amount, if any, should be agreed prior to use by the Association.

I declare that the contributions are my own, other than where I may have clearly quoted existing works, and I have permission to offer them for use to SSAA Queensland. In addition, I have sought permission to photograph any subjects visible. I have abided by all laws and regulations in attaining supplied photographs.
